Stunning Senior Moment

Apparently, a self-important college freshman attending a recent football game took it upon himself to explain to a senior citizen sitting next to him why it was impossible for the older generation to understand his generation. 'You grew up in a different world, actually an almost primitive one', the student said, loud enough for many of those nearby to hear. 'The young people of today grew up with television, jet planes, space travel, man walking on the moon. Our space probes have visited Mars. We have nuclear energy and ships, electric and hydrogen cars, cell phones, computers with light-speed processing... and more.' After a brief silence, the senior citizen responded as follows: 'You're right, son. We didn't have those things when we were young... so we invented them. Now, you arrogant little man, what are you doing for the next generation?' The applause was amazing....

An article by Lizzie Laroche printed in the Young Chelsea Bridge club magazine, entitled .

The Astrological Guide to Bridge Players. deserves a wider audience and will help you all to work out how well you are going to do in the Mixed Teams. Let's feature the ladies. This month :

CANCER . Cancerian females are warm and loving. Their natural conservatism makes them steady and reliable as partners. They are full of praise for those with whom they play. Never a word of blame or criticism passes their lips. You were very unlucky, partner, they sigh as their male companion fails trying to set up his hand instead of playing for the superior dummy reversal. Well played to make it, they murmur to the opposition who stare uncomprehendingly at the traveler which shows that all other pairs made two overtricks. Everyone feels warm and cherished when the Cancerian female is at the table

Vale Brian Frampton

Brian was a member of the QCBC since 2001. In those 10 years, he and his regular partner Nithi were seated for Tuesday, Friday and Saturday sessions. He was always cheery, pleasant and a gentleman. Never heard him complain even though you could see him walking a little slower. He was a Member of the Buffalo Club, Masons and a dart player. Brian didn't miss a session at the Storey Bridge on Sunday afternoon for the jazz session. Paul Maddigan met Brian at East's one night and convinced him to take up bridge. Paul relates the story of Brian winning a couple of meat trays one night at Easts, then giving them away to a fellow he knew who had a young family and was doing it a bit tough. When Brian didn't arrive for bridge on Tuesday 22 June and didn't answer his phone, the police were called to check on him. They found Brian had passed away at home. He was 74. I am sorry that we couldn't let members know funeral details but we didn't hear about the funeral until it was too late. Brian had no close family. Sympathy cards can be sent to: the Family of Brian Frampton, c/- 2/12 Dulacca St, Acacia Ridge 4110

In the last 12 years, the police have been asked to check on members who have not shown up at least 4 times. It would be nice for all if the office has contact details for your next of kin, and if you don't have family living close, then maybe a neighbours phone number.

A Quiz for people who know everything....

Husband Down

A husband and wife are shopping at Coles in the Local Shopping Centre The husband picks up a case of VB and puts it in their trolley. 'What do you think you're doing?' asks the wife. 'They're on sale, only $10 for 24 cans,' he replies. 'Put them back, we can't afford them,' demands the wife, and so they carry on shopping. A few aisles further on along the woman picks up a $20 jar of face cream and puts it in the trolley. 'What do you think you're doing?' asks the husband. 'Its my face cream. It makes me look beautiful,' replies the wife. Her husband retorts: 'So does 24 cans of VB and it's half the price.' On the PA system: 'Cleanup on aisle 25, we have a husband down.'
