

Face to Face Learning

QCBC offers lots of ongoing learning opportunities for you to improve your bridge, including:

Help with Play with Richard Fox	Mondays – 7pm to 9pm	Each session starts with a short lesson followed by pre-set hands that demonstrate the lesson.  No need to book or have a partner. Just turn up!
Help with Play with Ian Halford	Wednesdays – 10am to noon	Play a mixture of randomly dealt hands and pre-set hands at your own pace. At the end of each hand, turn the cards over and talk through the bidding and play.  No need to book or have a partner. Just turn up!
Supervised Play with Ross and Claire	Wednesdays – 10am to 1pm	Play in a relaxed competition where you can ask questions as you play. This session is scored.  No need to book or have a partner. Just turn up!
Coaching with Janeen Solomon	On demand to suit you	Get together a group of 4 or 8 and choose your topic.
Improvers Lessons	Periodically throughout the year
Mentoring	1 st Wednesday of the month – 7pm to 9pm	Play in a small group with an expert with opportunities to ask questions and receive constructive feedback on your bidding and play.

Contact Christine on 0412 427 748 or email gcbc1@optusnet.com.au.

Online Learning Resources

For those that would also like to learn or practice online, the ABF website lists the following:

Joan Butts Online School of Bridge	Joan Butts Bridge
Paul Marston	Grand Slam Bridge
North Shore Bridge Club	North Shore BC
Laura Ginnan and Peter Hollands	Real Deal Bridge