

Roz Hero celebrated 100th birthday on 30 August.

She looks wonderful and still likes a bit of bling.

Roz keeps busy reading, knitting and painting.

Roz was directed for many years. She would play bridge every day if possible. She sat north at the same table for years and everyone knew that was her table.

She stopped playing bridge when covid hit.

Roz now lives in Regis at Yeronga.

Happy Birthday, Roz!!